or other persons only on conditions prescribed by the Board, which may include the payment of the costs of copying or transcription. Each party is responsible for obtaining its own copy of the transcript if one is prepared.

(b) Corrections. Corrections to an official transcript will be made only when they involve errors affecting its substance. The Board may order such corrections on motion or on its own initiative, and only after notice to the parties giving them opportunity to object. Such corrections will ordinarily be made either by hand with pen and ink or by the appending of an errata sheet, but when no other method of correction is practicable the Board may require the reporter to provide substitute or additional pages.

6101.25 Briefs and memoranda of law [Rule 125].

- (a) Form and content of briefs and memoranda of law. Briefs and memoranda of law shall be typewritten on standard size 8½ by 11-inch paper. Otherwise, no particular form or organization is prescribed. Posthearing briefs should, at a minimum, succinctly set forth
- (1) The facts of the case with citations to those places in the record where supporting evidence can be found and
- (2) Argument with citations to supporting legal authorities. Memoranda of law should generally adhere as closely as practicable to the form and content of briefs.
- (b) Submission of posthearing briefs. Except as the Board may otherwise order, posthearing briefs shall be filed 30 calendar days after the Board's receipt of the transcript; reply briefs, if filed, shall be filed 15 calendar days after the parties' receipt of the initial posthearing briefs. The Board will notify the parties of the date of its receipt of the transcript. In the event one party has elected a hearing and the other party has elected to submit its case on the record pursuant to 6101.11, the filing of record submissions in the form of briefs shall be governed by this section.

6101.26 Consolidation; separate hearings; separate determination of liability [Rule 126].

- (a) Consolidation. When cases involving common questions of law or fact are pending, the Board may:
- (1) Order a joint hearing of any or all of the matters at issue in the cases;
 - (2) Order the cases consolidated; or
- (3) Make such other orders concerning the proceedings therein as are intended to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.
- (b) Separate hearings. The Board may order a separate hearing of any case or cases or of any claims or issues or number of claims or issues therein. The Board may enter appropriate orders or decisions with respect to any claims or issues that are heard separately.
- (c) Separate determinations of liability. The Board may:
- (1) Limit a hearing to those issues of law and fact relating to the right of a party to recover, reserving the determination of the amount of recovery, if any, for other proceedings; and
- (2) In its decision of an appeal, irrespective of whether there is evidence in the record concerning the amount of recovery, and whether or not a stipulation or order has been made, reserve determination of the amount of recovery for other proceedings. In any instance in which the Board has reserved its determination of the amount of recovery for other proceedings, its decision on the question of the right to recover shall be final, subject to the provisions of 6101.30 through 6101.33.

6101.27 Stay or suspension of proceedings; dismissals in lieu of stay or suspension [Rule 127].

- (a) Stay of proceedings to obtain contracting officer's decision. The Board may in its discretion stay proceedings to permit a contracting officer to issue a decision when an appeal has been taken from the contracting officer's alleged failure to render a timely decision.
- (b) Suspension for other cause. The Board may suspend proceedings in a case for good cause. The order suspending proceedings will prescribe the duration of the suspension or the conditions on which it will expire. The order may also prescribe actions to be taken by the parties during the period of suspension or following its expiration.

(c) Dismissal in lieu of stay or suspension. When circumstances beyond the control of the Board prevent the continuation of proceedings in a case, the Board may, in lieu of issuing an order suspending proceedings, dismiss the case without prejudice to reinstatement. Such a dismissal may require reinstatement by a date certain or within a certain period of time after the occurrence of a specified event. If the order of dismissal does not otherwise provide, it will be subject to the provisions of 6101.28(b).

6101.28 Dismissals [Rule 128].

- (a) Generally. A case may be dismissed by the Board on motion of either party. A case may also be dismissed for reasons cited by the Board in a show cause order to which response has been permitted. Every dismissal shall be with prejudice to reinstatement of the case unless a dismissal without prejudice has been requested by a party or specified in a show cause order.
- (b) Dismissal without prejudice. When a case has been dismissed without prejudice to its reinstatement and neither party has requested, within the period of time specified in this paragraph, that the case be reinstated, the case shall be deemed to have been dismissed with prejudice as of the expiration of 180 calendar days from the date of dismissal, or such other period as the Board may prescribe.
- (c) Issuance of order. An order of dismissal shall be issued by the panel of judges to which the case has been assigned if the motion is contested or if the Board is acting consequent to its own show cause order. An order of dismissal may be issued by the panel chairman alone if the motion to dismiss is not contested.

6101.29 Decisions: format; procedure [Rule 129].

Except as provided in 6102.2 (small claims procedure), decisions of the Board will be made in writing upon the record as prescribed in 6101.12. Each of the parties will be furnished a copy of the decision certified by the Office of the Clerk of the Board, and the date of the receipt thereof by each party will be established in the record.

6101.30 Full Board consideration [Rule 130].

- (a) Requests. (1) A request for full Board consideration is not favored. Ordinarily, full Board consideration will be ordered only when
- (i) It is necessary to secure or maintain uniformity of Board decisions, or
- (ii) The matter to be referred is one of exceptional importance.
- (2) A request for full Board consideration may be made by either party on any date which is both
- (i) After the panel to which the case is assigned has issued its decision on a motion for reconsideration or relief from decision and
- (ii) Within 10 working days after the date on which that party receives that decision. Any party making a request for full Board consideration shall state concisely in the motion the precise grounds on which the request is based.
- (3) The full Board on its own may initiate consideration of a matter
- (i) At any time while the case is before the Board,
- (ii) No later than the last date on which any party may file a motion for reconsideration or relief from decision or order, or
- (iii) If such a motion is filed by a party, within ten days after a panel has resolved it.
- (b) Consideration. Promptly after such a request is made, a ballot will be taken among the judges; if a majority of them favors the request, the request will be granted. The result of the vote will promptly be reported by the Board through an order. The concurring or dissenting view of any judge who wishes to express such a view may issue at the time of such order or at any time thereafter.
- (c) Decisions. If full Board consideration is granted, a vote shall be taken promptly on the pending matter. After this vote is taken, the Board shall promptly, by order, issue its determination, which shall include the concurring or dissenting view of any judge who wishes to express such a view.
